What participants say about ROCKET ...

A brilliant tool to discover the real talents within a workforce and who are the natural leaders. VWS Ltd

A definite realisation that the business performed so much better if people talked to each other. Shaw Marketing

It's so much fun and adrenalin filled. It really was walking in the shoes of the real-world business units that you may never have experienced before. Law Society Scotland

More does not mean better. It is key to identify departmental bottlenecks/processes, don't assume. Strategize, plan, understand before executing. Have a shared vision and common goal. Artificial Lift Performance

Facilitated by experienced business consultants

Two HEART of business consultants will facilitate the business simulation experience. Each of our consultants is an accredited trainer of ROCKET, a business owner with several years experience managing their own business and providing consultancy services.

A small investment with great returns

For ROCKET-Ignite the investment is only £4,995 plus V.A.T.

This investment is for a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 15 people.

We can co-ordinate mixed business team sessions, this generally requires a minimum of 5 persons from each business.
